Cedar Plank Salmon

7" Vinyl EP CVT-108

The band: Cedar Plank Salmon is an echo-y noise pop duo from Chicago, IL. Their sounds result from the mostly platonic musical marriage between grade school chums Tim Gurnig (talk-singer/guitars) and Sam Svita (sing-singer/drums without hi-hats).

Over the past decade, the pair's musical growing pains have matched those of adolescence. Fortunately the awkward moments resulted in increasingly interesting record collections.

Tim and Sam left the city together, and, like a kung fu movie in reverse, went on adventure in the small college town/big music scene of Charleston, IL. This maturation process pushed the pair to mesh the 1970s NYC art rock scene with a wandering and reverberated punk aesthetic upon their return to Chicago.

Side 1	Side 2
1. Oh Baby (Rock in His Sock)	1. Bedroom Grease Fire 2. Bikini Thirst

The record: On their debut 7" EP for Cavetone Records, Cedar Plank Salmon make a surprising amount of noise and pervert the essence of pop music. The A-side features a surf-ish romp in "Oh Baby (Rock In His Sock)." The hook infects for better and worse taken from the playbook of PiL or The Modern Lovers. The B-side demonstrates their indie jazz punk leanings reminiscent of Television, Sonic Youth, and The Talking Heads in the instrumental "Bedroom Grease Fire" as well as the eerily anthemic "Bikini Thirst."
